

FEB 28 REC'D

FEB 28 ANS'D

[REDACTED]
Pittsburgh, PA 15219

February 21, 1990

Tom Korologos, President
The Timmons Company
1850 K Street, N.W.
Washington, DC 20036

Dear Mr. Korologos:

Your C-SPAN interview revealed a bias of unbelievable dimensions!

You began by saying that the Consitution "stops" at the doors of the Senate! Then you demonstrated exactly the opposite. Regret that the Senate has not approved of the President's nominations without blind obedience was preceded by insinuations that Senators make false accusations and followed by a sarcastic remark that the President had been elected by a big majority.

The Constitution dictates nominations made "by and with the advice and consent" of the Senate. There is nothing to show that such procedure can be shortened if a President is elected by any majority. A balance is the very basis of our government which you and Robert Bork would tear down!

You implied that the Democrats rejected "Bob" Bork for partisan reasons. It was the diligent and nonpartisan questions by Republican Senator Specter, which revealed Judge Bork's views of the Consitution! Any of our basic individual rights not specifically and clearly stated would be at the of any legislative body.

It is very ironic that the Constitution is so specific in the "advice and consent" of the Senate, but Robert Bork and his lobbyist, Mr. Korologos, were enraged when defeated properly!

Perhaps you would have had more of a case if, for instance, the Senate had questioned Judge Bork's sudden decision to pay log overdue taxes to Connecticut upon nomination. Or, in this age of drug addiction and smoking problems, if the Senate had asked about the qualifications for such a high position being in question because of a strong nicotine addiction!

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

→ COPY C-SPAN