

Hallo to All. May 7th 1997 Shame on me. It's now the 7th of MAY, almost one week since the British Elections. I would like to thank you, CSPAN, so very, very much for your superb coverage these past few weeks leading up to the Election itself, Election Day, and thereafter.
It did my heart good & I learned so much. Born in England, but ^{sold in aid of} emigrated here

O-BRITS

before I was of voting age.
This past year I was also able to follow the U. S. A. campaign & elections. Thank you again - All very fascinating Bill for too long & far, far too much money spent frivolously in my opinion. Big country to cover admittedly - diversity too.
You deserve 4 Gold Stars anyway, on both accounts.
What a lovely, ^{Imust} lovely man Mr. Dwyer is. (what a shame.....)
He plays "Cricket" though! Hmmm!!
The "mark of the man" - thank you Mr Blair. Just look after your country first - please!!!! S.O.S.

Putting Britain first (Country before Party!) should be his first priority.
We'll be watching him very closely I can assure him of that. There are people all over the world who hold Britain very close to their hearts — & indeed even their soul!
He has his job ~~hard~~ ^{cut} out for him & I wish him God Speed & good luck — & most of all — do the right thing for the British Peoples. I shall look forward to watching Commons Questions, but I will, most certainly, miss John Major. (Malcolm Rifkind) God Bless You C-SPAN. Keep up after superb coverage — always.
Sincerely

Lompoc, CA 93436

May the British and American peoples, for their own safety and for the good of all, walk together
side by side
in majesty,
in justice
and in peace.
