Dear Mr Lamb,

I just want to compliment you for the high regard for civic duty you showed by airing Harry King's speech recently. Since most of his speech consisted of denigrating the Rotarians either you have a double standard or I can look forward to hearing someone equally offensive trashing some organization made up mostly of Jews.

Maybe some people are amused by the racist remarks of this petty, puerile, spiteful madadjunct little piss pot, but many do not. Perhaps you find it necessary to get "politically correct."

Thank you.
