Greetings:

I am a subscriber to the Cablevision service in Homewood, Illinois. This particular service has never carried C-Span II, which I know about only from rumor. And I was particularly upset, last May, when they 'reorganized' their channels to shift C-Span, itself, into a 'sharing' arrangement with SportsVision --- a system which telecasts the Chicago NBA and American League franchise games, and trashsports of all sorts the rest of the time.

The reason for this reorganization, I was told when I complained, was the large demand from Homewood for the Black Entertainment Network, and CNBC. I have strong reason to doubt the veracity of this statement.

Is there any way that you can help. Have others had the same difficulty, and been able to force the local system to carry you full time? Whatever information and assistance you can give will be appreciated.

Very Truly Yours,
