Dear Brian:

During your Journalists Roundtable show Saturday night, you mentioned that you would be interviewing Bill Clinton during the governors session in Seattle, Washington. Before you go to Seattle, would you talk to investigative reporter James Tucker (you can reach him through The Spotlight there in DC) about the secret Bilderberger meeting in Baden-Baden, Germany the weekend of June 7-9. Bill Clinton ~~was~~ there!

Please ask Bill Clinton why he, among others, would attend a secret Bilderberg meeting which is controlled by powerful "one-worlders" who start wars, cause depressions, topple governments, etc., etc., etc.

The same names always appear at the secret meetings of the Bilderbergers, Council on Foreign Relations and Trilateralists - Rockefeller/Rothschild/Kissenger. In my opinion, these men have destroyed every sovereign Christian nation in the world - look at what has happened to our country - we are now a socialistic, communistic democracy - no longer a sovereign Christian Republic - we can no longer speak of God in our public schools!

It won't matter who wins the next presidential election, Democrat or Republican, because both sides are controlled by these "one-worlders." There isn't a dimes worth of difference between them.

Brian, I am a 76 year old young lady, and for the last forty-five years I have watched these "destroyers" at work - you won't read about their dirty deeds in the controlled press, but there are patriotic Americans who have written about them and they are the ones I read.

You are one class act, Brian, and there isn't another reporter who can top you. You ask all the right questions. Wonder what Bill Clintons answer will be when you ask him about the Bilderbergers??

Love your programs and I try to watch all of them - C-Span is the greatest!

Very sincerely,

Liberty Lobby Reports

By Vince Ryan

About the Bilderbergers

The great American free press, that collectively says it staunchly believes in the First Amendment to the Constitution which guarantees freedom of the press, has again demonstrated it is subservient to a higher order—the Establishment which owns it.

What I am writing about is the continued blackout in the media of the secret meeting of the Bilderberg group that was held in Baden-Baden, Germany the weekend of June 7-9.

Vince Ryan is chairman of Liberty Lobby's Board of Policy. Membership on the Board of Policy is $40 a year. For more information write the secretary at Liberty Lobby, 300 Independence Ave. SE, Washington, D.C. 20003.

The June 24 issue of The SPOTLIGHT gave the conclave extensive coverage from investigative reporter James P. Tucker Jr., who went to Baden-Baden to bring back his exclusive story of the secret meeting of the movers and shakers of the world, including David Rockefeller, Henry Kissinger, U.S. senators John Chafee (R-R.I.), and Bennett Johnston (D-La.) and governors Bill Clinton (D-Ark.) and Douglas Wilder (D-Va.).

Still, despite the fact that the press had in attendance its own figures like Katharine Graham, owner of the Washington Post, and Robert L. Bartley, editor of the Wall Street Journal, nary a word about the meeting appeared in their publications.

Then in the July 22 issue of The SPOTLIGHT we published the entire list of attendees at the meeting as well as an exclusive look at and commentary on their secret agenda.

This time we issued a release through the service of PR Newswire on July 16 noting that we had published a list of those attending which included "more than 100 world leaders, including key Bush administration officials, prime ministers and cabinet members of a dozen governments" and that the meeting "formulated final plans for the Group of Seven meeting with Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev tomorrow in London."

KEY PLAYERS

We then listed some of the key players, in addition to those mentioned above: U.S. Army Gen. John R. Galvin, supreme allied commander for Europe, and Arthur Dunkel, director general of General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, which champions free trade to the detriment of U.S. industry.

We concluded the release by stating "the full list of those who attended the meeting is published in the current SPOTLIGHT (July 22) and is being made available to the press upon request."

Now who received this release?

Eighty news bureaus of major publications that are located here in Washington, including the Washington Post, Wall Street Journal, New York Times, the Gannet chain etc.

Also some 2,000 other newspapers, news magazines, TV and radio publications, local radio and TV stations and radio and TV networks.

Here was a chance for the media to report some news that would be real news to their audiences. And the responses?

Four. In order of contacting me they are: Tass, the Soviet "news" agency; Voice of Kuwait; Saudi Gazette and States News Service.

KATHARINE GRAHAM
... Knows about Bilderberg.

Copies of The SPOTLIGHT went out to these organizations immediately.

As for the rest of the media, we're still waiting to hear from them.

Ask your local newspaper editor or radio news director what he knows about the Bilderberg meeting. His comments should be interesting. Then give him a copy of The SPOTLIGHT.

Remember. Your influence counts. Use it.
