BRIAN LAMB, Pres.
C-SPAN
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Dear Mr. LAMB:

Once in a 'Blue Moon' this letter writer who is an avid viewer of C-SPAN, would take his wife and drive from Florida to our nation's capital.

While travelling through Maryland or perhaps, Virginia my car radio was usually in an 'ON' position. Thus, I would be aware of the latest news releases.

Suddenly, to my great surprise, I was aware of a broadcast of C-SPAN.

"Just Great," I shouten!

AND SO, BRIAN, THE QUESTION BECOMES OBVIOUS. IF YOU CAN PRESENT C-SPAN IN WASHINGTON, MARYLAND OR VIRGINIA — WHY NOT THROUGHOUT THE OTHER FORTY SEVEN OR FORTY EIGHT STATES? OF COURSE, WE KNOW WHAT SOME OF THE PROBLEMS ARE. STILL, THERE ARE MANY OF US WHO ARE YOUR FOLLOWERS, AND ANXIOUS TO HELP YOU ACCOMPLISH SAME.

IF YOU FIND THE TIME, AN ANSWER TO MY QUERY WOULD BE APPRECIATED.

Most sincerely,

Hudson, Florida.
