DEAR MR. LAMB:

On this week's Sunday Morning Journal I WAS outraged to see major coverage of the tragedy "American Spectator" article ABOUT President Clinton & the Troopers by Daniel Wattenberg. Most MEDIA outlets thought the story was in such bad taste that they devoted very little coverage to it. But APPARENTLY C-SPAN treats the American Spectator AS if it were A CREDITABLE news magazine instead of the sleazy right wing tabloid which it IS.

I AM ALSO Troubled by ALL the coverage that C-SPAN devotes to the "Washington Times". You treat the "Washington Times" AS if it were A MAJOR news paper - which it is NOT. It is A paper with A SMALL circulation with AN extreme right wing bias.

C-SPAN States that is important but it HAS A SUBTLE right wing slant. That explains why most of your viewer CALLINS + FAXES ARE right wing ZEALOTS + their statement "Thank God for C-SPAN" has become their RALLYING CALL.
