C-Span

Washington, D.C.

Attention: Mr. Brian Lamb

Dear Mr. Lamb:

On Tuesday, April 26, 1994, Sen. Swain was hosted on a program featuring Julian Witcover. This program was a "Call in" show regarding the then newly deceased President Richard Nixon.

I am a great fan of C-Span and have always appreciated the way you air both sides of the issue. I watch C-Span at least 4 to 6 hours per day — everyday. Always I appreciate your coverage.

However, I strongly protest your featuring such an anti Nixon person — particularly when all the nation was waiting for the funeral — the program was tasteless and disgraceful. There will be plenty of time for Mr. Witcover to remind us all of the dark side of Nixon. Not just before the funeral.

It will take me sometime to recover
my positive feelings about C-Spon.

I hope Susan Duran had the grace to have been glad when the program ended.

Sincerely
