AN UNFED MIND
DEVOURS ITSELF.
-GORE VIDAL

Dear Mr. Lamb —

I'm glad I am not alone in my thinking (judging by some of the phone calls today and yesterday on Wall Street Journal call-ins.)

I am a regular viewer of C.SPAN.

But, last week's devotion to talk shows left me cold. I realize C.SPAN wants to cover all forms of media and that you probably will get many letters praising last week, but I hate talk shows.

Too, I have noticed a lot of time spent on what I perceive to be conservative media... W.S.J.. the talk shows.

Often, you offer in return to callers' similar complaints... 'well, gee, we have the 4

President on all the time." A) I don't consider the President a "media outlet". Offering response to him by 'conservatives', with government/Administration people, does not equal "balance" to me. B) There are publications and organizations I would like to see on C-SPAN: The Nation, The Progressive, Z Magazine, Body Politic, Fairness and Accuracy in Media, Women in Media.

I have two requests:

- 1) Would it be possible to add the area code/phone number to the name/address you show at the end of a show? It costs me 65¢ to call 202/212 and others to obtain phone number.
 - 2) I'd be willing to pay for transcript of shows. I drive myself quite mad trying to write down what's being said.
- Thank you. I do love CSPAN
