Dear Brian: I am retired. Since I started watching CSPAN I enjoyed three quarters of Political Science at the local Community College.

As you are doing magazines, I hope you will consider doing The New Yorker. As you probably know some of the most famous American writers had their start with this magazine. I have read everything I can find about Harold Ross, the original editor. The New Yorker has been recently including more news articles. I have narrowed my TV viewing to CSPAN, Aft, & LA.
