C-span

Heard the show where a speech writer's response to call in who stated that Min. Jarr Khan was the greatest speaker he had heard. His racist response, stating that I speak for all C-span listeners when I say that ... (some negative remark on Min. Jarr Khan).

This comment was not questioned for what it was. Nor was the obvious question, has he ever heard Min. Jarr Khan speak was asked.

Then someone commented on the condescension of Al Gore when he was speaking. And the arrogant response that only a white man could say, the person being spoken to has no allow the condescension. I wonder how many Black men and women have been arrested for Disorderly Conduct for verbally objecting to condesc.
