To Brian Lamb,

This letter regards the "screening" process going on at C-SPAN with the Democrat-Republican lines.

I've been a C-SPAN watcher for some time and I've seen you defend yourself when liberals accused you of favoring conservatives because there were more conservative calls coming in and you always said "We take them as they come" -

Now I just happen to believe there are more conservative people in this country and they are poorly represented on national media.

There are no "phone banks" that conservatives use to get through - You ask one caller if she didn't want to hear both sides - Please -

There's plenty of both sides with the guests you have on.

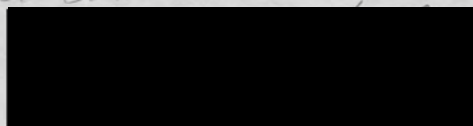

I suspect the liberals put the

O.W.J. R

pressure on you to "invent" the two lines).

you didn't do this in the '92
campaign and it's a shame you feel so in this one.

I'm not going to say I'll quit
watching like some callers have said,
but I don't feel as good about C-SPAN being the most fair network - I agree with one caller - Let the liberals deal C-SPAN and take their chances.
