Mr. Lamb.

I love C Span. The part I don't love is getting through to you people on the phone.

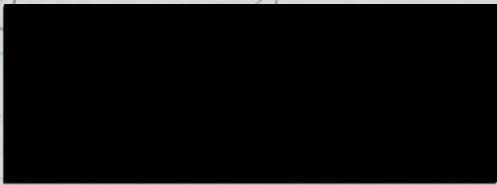

The last time I tried was a week or so ago. I tried about 10 times no luck, I've been trying for ten yrs.

The show I'm refering to that I tried so hard to get through was the one, Mr. Witcover and Mr Williams appeared on. the subject was on crime and gun control and 2nd amm.

Mr. Witcover was right the way he argued the 2nd amm. He then asked the question, why doesn't the N. B. A. take it to the Supreme Court?, I think all three of you know the answer.

It's Economics stupid. The N.R.C. won't Challenge it because they know they will lose. The Govt won't take it to the Court because they know they will win. But we will all be losers, just too many tax Bucks

Thank you
