Dear C-Span:

I watch your program a couple of times per week and enjoy it.

I just wanted to state how pathetic the Republicans have become in their hateful and careless smear campaign against President Clinton. Where is their proof to support their degenerately petty accusations against him? A joke like Paula Jones and her claims fall far short of proof.

The old Republicans were people with integrity, unlike the sleazy (spelling?) and greedy ones that run the party ^{now}. Nert Gingrich for president - you're got to be kidding!

Sincerely,

O.C. Lewis
