Att: Brian Lomb

Dear Mr. Lomb,

Again, its a question of the rich con, and the poor are left out. I refer to calling in to C-Span.

We are retired in Florida, live in a manufactured home in a mobile home park.

I cannot afford to call as things stand. Why can't you have a 800 number? I realize it would be hard to get thru as it is on Rush Limbaugh show, but at least we would have a spot

(You know we have a mind and opinions) and would like to express them.

I can't tell you how much I appreciate C-Opn. In to the point where your station CNN and a few of the others similar are what I put on

Could I take a minute to tell you about my change of heart about Bosnia. After seeing and hearing of the babies on the bus I called my White House number and urged the president to do something

A few days later watching Crossfire on CNN I changed my mind.
An Army general was on, vckemently opposed to going in. He said something like "I would ^{not} want to see an army pilot shot down and subject to a choir saw death, cut limb

by him until they die. Not neither would I.

Again I ask - how about a toll free number?

Thanks for listening.

Yours Truly
