To whom it may concern:

I usually enjoy watching C-SPAN for its dignified and accurate presentations in good taste.

To my dismay, on Tuesday, December 21, there were two hours of prime time including that obnoxious pipsqueak, David Brock, given to the sleazy allegations printed in The American Spectator and The Los Angeles Times which I would not buy because I don't have a dog to housebreak.

You put our President's news conference about child abuse on at 11:10 and did not cover the other conference about the people who died in Lockerbie, Scotland at all.

I expect to see this nonsense on Hard Copy or A Current Affair. Not on C-Span.

Why is there this obsession with our President's alleged sex life? I believe that someone must be very jealous of him.

Here is this brilliant, hard working, dedicated, compassionate, courageous, good man and he is our President. Instead of appreciating him, the Media has gone out of its way to try to discredit, vilify and ridicule him. I do not expect this of C-Span.

Please restore your own credibility and undo the harm that you have done.

Sincerely,
