Gentlemen:

THE CLINTON CHRONICLES was quickly dismissed as part of a "right wing conspiracy" because of its powerful case against a corrupt governor. If those who have not seen the video or read the book would do so now, they might finally understand why we find ourselves in this dangerous position today. Our very Constitution is now in jeopardy of being weakened for future generations.

Those who really want to know the truth will seek it out and will find some of the answers in THE CLINTON CHRONICLES. As hard as it was for me to believe when I first saw it, watching it again yesterday brought the whole Clinton picture into focus.

Those responsible for producing THE CLINTON CHRONICLES have no doubt been accused of wanting to "get Clinton" because they don't like him. I doubt that they would put their lives on the line as many did just to "get" him; clearly, they saw the lies and corruption for what they were and courageously took a stand for the sake of the Nation.

Please take another look at THE CLINTON CHRONICLES (book or video), and at least bring up some of the facts so that there can be a public debate, giving exposure if not credence to the accusations. Isn't it time to find out who is lying? The President or the people who have been damaged by him?

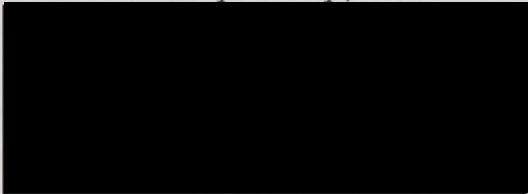

Our country may survive Bill Clinton's years of corruption, but it may not survive a watering down of the Impeachment Trial because of government by the polls.

The Republicans have taken the narrow road, doing what they think is right for the country despite the polls. The Democrats have taken the wide road, looking for votes to keep them in office and clearly not voting their consciences if they vote to keep Clinton in office. Each one has been handed a copy of THE CLINTON CHRONICLES, and perhaps some have tossed it aside because they don't want to know what it has to say about the man they have chosen to be their President. You may be tempted to toss it aside for the same reason, but I implore you to read or watch it with an OPEN MIND. Only you, the media, can re-open the case and cause a debate to take place. The stubborn truth will not go away. Let's expose corruption; left uncovered it can only beget more corruption and destroy the most perfect form of government ever conceived.

Thank you.

Yours very truly,
