Dear Sir/Madam,

Unfortunately, I have been too busy to write sooner, but I wanted to let you know that I enjoy your coverage of British politics. I lived in London from November 1990 to April 1991 and it was an eventful six months. Friends jokingly say I was responsible for Margaret Thatcher's "dethronement," IRA attacks on No. 10, the Gulf War and the first snow fall in London in four years. As an Anglophile, I am very interested in the "goings-on" in the United Kingdom. I faithfully watch Prime Minister's Question Time every Sunday and I watched as much of the BBC Election coverage as I could. I have two requests: (1) Could you add the British evening news to your daily line-up? I vote for ITN's News At Ten over the BBC. (2) I read sometime ago that you were trying to add Australia's PM's Question Time; well, I for one support the idea. It would be nice to have another perspective on the world.

Thank you for your time and attention. Keep up the brilliant work. You're providing a great service to the nation especially during this important election period. Oh, speaking of which, thanks for carrying WTAE's Pennsylvania primary election program nationwide, their coverage was far superior than it normally would have been.

Respectfully,
