Gentlemen:

I enjoy your C-Span presentations and believe they make an important contribution toward keeping the American citizenry informed about the operation of the U. S. govt.

If possible, please provide me with the answers to two questions.

(1) What was the final disposition of the "Keating Five Investigation"? In other words, what final decisions did the Senate Ethics Committee make on each of the five senators.

(2) Who paid for the lawyers representing each of the five senators? In other words, it appeared as if each senator had a lawyer defending ~~them~~ him.

Also, it appeared to me that the ethics committee did its very best to ask questions which would put the various five senators in a favorable light. It has become obvious to me that a govt. body or agency cannot investigate itself. These ethics committees of congress are a farce. Facts revealed by the Special ^{Investigator} ~~Committee~~, Mr. Bennett, in case of "Heating Five", were twisted, distorted or ignored by the Senate Ethics Committee.

Sincerely,
