C-SPAN FOCUSES ON GEORGIA STATE RACE AND GEORGIA NATIVE JIMMY CARTER

Washington, D.C., November 19, 1992--Next week, C-SPAN's cameras will focus on Georgia as the state Senate race draws to a close, and as former President Jimmy Carter accepts an award for his humanitarianism.

On-air schedule is as follows:

 Sunday, November 22 at 7:00 PM (ET)--Live Georgia Senatorial Debate. C-SPAN will simulcast WXIA-TV's live coverage of a debate between incumbent Sen. Wyche Fowler (D) and businessman Paul Coverdell (R). Live simulcasts of local radio and TV campaign programs have been an integral part of C-SPAN's coverage of the 1992 congressional and presidential races.

 Monday, November 23 at 8:00 PM (ET)--Georgia Senate Runoff Programming. Provides an in-depth look at the candidates and the issues shaping this election as the campaign draws to a close on the day before Georgia voters go to the polls.

 Saturday, November 28 at 10:30 PM (ET)--Former President Jimmy Carter at the Town Hall of California. C-SPAN will air a speech by former President Jimmy Carter as he accepts the 1992 Humanitarian Award which will be presented to him by the Town Hall of California on Tuesday, November 24 in Los Angeles.

C-SPAN is available in 57.9 million households nationwide and around the world via satellite. C-SPAN is privately funded to serve the public by America's cable television companies.
