Dear Brian,

I apologize for not writing sooner. I forget how busy my life in Maine always is.
(Slow learner.)

I do want to thank you for inviting me to be on Q and A. It was a wonderful opportunity and the response has been heart warming (as well as a bit overwhelming.) I was a bit worried beforehand because I had had a TIA a few months before and as a result

I sometimes have trouble dredging up the right name or word. Despite the 'no-editing' rule - gulp! - I think it came across very well. You are a challenging interviewer and that's good!

Thank you again. It was a great pleasure - warm wishes,
