C-SPAN AIRS LIVE "SPACE BRIDGE" CALL-IN FROM WASHINGTON AND TOKYO

Citizens and Legislators Discuss Issues Concerning Two Countries

Washington, D.C., November 27 -- On Thursday, November 29, C-SPAN marks the 100th anniversary of the Japanese Diet with a live "space bridge" Call-in program from Tokyo.

From 7:00 - 9:30 AM (ET), members of the United States Congress and the Japanese Parliament will participate in a bi-continental live Call-in from both C-SPAN's Washington, D.C. studios and the Japanese Satellite Broadcast studios in Tokyo.

Guests include Reps. Dan Glickman (D-KS), Jim Leach (R-IA), James Traficant (D-OH), and Sen. Richard Lugar (R-IN) in Washington, and three members of the Japanese House of Representatives in Tokyo.

Phone lines will be open nationwide in both the United States and Japan for viewers to participate in a dialogue encompassing U.S.-Japan relations, society in Japan, current Japanese political issues, Pacific Rim trade issues and the situation in the Persian Gulf.

The Japan Call-in, produced in conjunction with C-NET (the Japanese Congressional Network), is the first of a two-part special which continues on Sunday, December 9, beginning at 2:00 PM (ET). C-SPAN's coverage that day will include a trip to the Tokyo Stock Exchange, interviews with Japanese political science professors at Waseda University, the Japanese Diet and interviews with members, a walking tour of Tokyo and a visit to the East Asia bureau of the Washington Post with bureau chief T.R. Reid.

In July 1983, C-SPAN first ventured into "comparative politics" with a special telecast of the Canadian House of Commons. Since then, C-SPAN has provided coverage of legislatures from 11 countries and the European Community, including regular coverage of the British House of Commons, which airs every Sunday evening at 9:00 PM (ET).

C-SPAN is available in 51.7 million households nationwide and around the world via satellite. The network is privately funded and is a public service of the cable television industry.
