Dear Mr.Lamb:

As long time fans and supporters of C-Span, we are writing to register our dismay and disappointment with last week's morning programming. We have come to expect thoughtful commentary and programming from you. The radio talk show programs may be, to some viewers, entertaining but thoughtful they are not; e.g., one of them stated on C-Span that, under the Clinton health care plan, doctors would be employees of the government. That is not true! Such cheap entertainment masquerading as political commentary is beneath the dignity we have come to expect from C-SPAN.

Please maintain your standards and let radio carry the trash. We welcome different opinions to help us understand the issues better, but are offended by you giving national visibility to local know-nothing programs - or, for that matter, national know-nothing programs.

Why did you do it?

Sincerely [REDACTED]
