

9/18/98

Dear Brian,

I'm a 65 yr. taxpaying voter who watches your program daily but am too busy to try to call. Today Matthew Miller who you properly labeled liberal sickened me with his smirk at such a serious matter.

This week is Constitution Week (named so in 1953) when it was never believed a president could degrade the office to such an extent.

O.W.J.

I weep for our Country to think that such excuses (Private matter) are made for blatant lying.

Clinton has done nothing for the good of our Country - should be impeached as stated in the constitution (Art. 1 Sect 2, I believe) since he is not man enough to resign. Not "everyone does it" as Mr Miller stated.

Respectfully,

Lynchburg VA

The Lyceum, University of Mississippi, Oxford

Brian Lamb

C-Span

400 N. Capitol NW #650

Washington DC 20001

20001/0350

