Dear Mr. Lamb,

Our compliments, please, to you and tireless crews, for the splendid coverage of the Clinton Inauguration. Your unique presentation in the dark of night, the dawn, the brilliant day into the twilight of the parade and darkness to bursts of glitter and glitz at Inaugural Balls was overwhelming. More than overwhelming because it was without cant. (see Webster "1" 3 and 4)

Our favorite moment was the address by the pastor of the Brooklyn NY AME, especially to see Clinton crib a note for or two which we heard <sup>echoed</sup> in his Inaugural Address.

C-SPAN has become a major source for us, not slavishly, but at least Friday and Monday mornings at eight a.m. and the Book Reports of a Sunday.

Please accept our good wishes,

, for the both of us,

P.S. Recommended reading on the "hot" topic of today: the PERSECUTIONS of the Pentagon. Allison Press 1990.
