Dear Brian:

Thought you might be interested in the enclosed shot-in-the-dark guess I sent to myself for fun concerning the Nov. 3rd. election. Because of all the flap with President Clinton and Monica Lewinsky et al, I assumed there might be some sort of backlash against the Republicans and. although I believe this was the first time since 1822 (?) that a government did not lose any seats (even gained some) during an off-year election, in my naivety I thought the Democrats might even gain some. I am not sure of the figures for senators and governors but, being a Democrat, we mustn't be greedy!

I have never phoned in because the only time I ever watch at that time in the morning (4 a.m. here) is when I've been awake all night being a night person, but I see it later during the day on a repeat. I have been seeing C-Span for about two years or so now having discovered it by accident, and I must say I probably watch it more than any other TV channel, both C-Span and C-Span2. You do an amazing job, you and Susan and others and I really appreciate your wonderful work. Without C-Span I wouldn't know what is going on in Congress and elsewhere in Washington. Now please send me all the money I have spent writing to senators and representatives and the White House, even a telegram recently, suggesting to President Clinton he return to La Crosse, Wisconsin, and make an apology to the townsfolk and nation. I did get a nice reply from the new White House Chief of Staff, John Podesta and a few days ago, one from Mayor John D. Medinger of La Crosse, saying he would consider my suggestion. See what you inspire from us!

Again, many thanks, and I hope you all can keep the pot boiling. My best wishes for the Holiday Season to you all at C-Span.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
