

Dear C-SPAN:

Sunday, Nov. 19, 1995

This morning we heard Lynn Cutler, VP of the Kamber Gp. (never heard of it before!); but Ms. Cutler sounds like a typical, arrogant Washingtonian-insider. I would have guessed she was a typical, liberal newswoman. She certainly voiced all the typical (stereotypical) baloney handed out in the President's office. I'm glad you present both sides of every issue. More and more we can see how phony the arguments are from the liberal side. It was odd to hear her reference to our horrendous national debt as being no worse than other countries! She must believe we are all ignoramuses out here in the hinterlands. Our national debt is a disgrace. She doesn't regard another Trillion Dollar Deficit of any importance. God help the USA!

Sincerely,
