

Dear Mr Lamb:

July 19, 1992

We have enjoyed your Journalists Roundtable for many years. The people chosen to sit at your table proved to be informative and interesting journalists. It is difficult to convey to you how astonished we were last evening when a person such as "Rush" Limbaugh appeared. He is an insult and NOT a journalist or interesting rabble rouser. It is of interest to us that he has suddenly been endowed with so many programs so suddenly. We wonder at the short space of time given him to reach your distinguished table. Please..Please..NO MORE [REDACTED]
