Dear Brian Lamb,

I feel my 28 years service with the U.S. Government, having been with the FBI for 21 years as a Secretary in the Miami, Seattle, Los Angeles and San Diego offices, as well as at the American Embassy in Bonn, Germany, and thereafter with the U.S. Air Force for 2 years in Wiesbaden, Germany, followed by 5 years with NATO Allied Forces Northern Europe in Oslo, Norway, has given me a good background to recognize and judge how marvelous The Journalists Round Table is. I enjoy all of C-SPAN but this program appeals to me above all others, and I hope you never change it, who could be better informed than journalists when it comes to being aware of current affairs!

You do an outstanding job with this program. It couldn't be improved! I hope you disregard the criticism and complaints from the man who called in on last Friday's program.

His remarks were what impelled me at long last to write you in praise of C-SPAN. The background of classical music gives such class to C-SPAN and I have wanted to thank you for it for a very long time. I never cease to be grateful for it.

Sincerely,
