

No one likes to feel left out, in any type of activity. Me and my family watch C-Span as it bring Washington and the World into our living room. We feel that we are so much a part of whats happening with your coverage of the legislature, and special committees that its almost like evesdropping! One minute you take us to actual happenings in Congres where they are deciding issues that directly effect us and we see how our representative stand. Th next minute were are in the same room where a press conference is going on. Here is West Texas iss easy to feel left out, especially when it comes to the Washington scene, but not anymore. Not only can you watch, but on your call in programs we get a chance to participate. I remembe thinking I would never stand a chance of getting through on your program, but when you had New Mexico Governor Toney Anaya I called and I got throght with my questions. I have also always wondered what it would be like to be behind the scenes on a show such as Larry King and you answered that question with your super coverage. I also want to praise you for your coverage of the Presidential Primaries. Your interviews with local folks in New England and Florida were unsurpassed, especially when you visited with the local newspaper editors and writers. I don't feel like you are trying to impose the news on us, but rather opening the door so we can form our own opionions. It used to be I'd switch onC-Span ocassionally in between regualar programs, but now I find myself turning toC-Span first. My wife and I never really had a honeymoon years ago when we were married and now that we are both in our mid 30's I can't think of any $\frac{1}{2}$ lace nicer than Washington. Whether you choose my letter or not I want to compliment you on your programing, you truely are Americas Network....
