Dear Editors,

As an avid C-SPANADDICT, I'm forwarding information on a set of seminars put on by the U.S. Naval Institute in Annapolis, and now available in Videotape.

My thought is that these might well prove of interest to an audience at least as large as those attracted by some of the more arcane programs about legal matters.

I do hope I've not been so unalert as to miss these programs put on by you.

Sincerely,
