Dear Mr. Lamb,

I had the pleasant experience of getting through to C-Span's Morning Journal. I'm an avid listener and an infrequent caller. My last call concerned emotional when used in reference to economics. Today had to do with polarities between blacks and whites. I think Mr. Horowitz is a thoughtful man.

Most of all, thanks for helping me become a more informed responsible citizen. I mean it, most sincerely.

Cordially,

(The caller from Vienna, VA)
