Dear Mr Lamb:

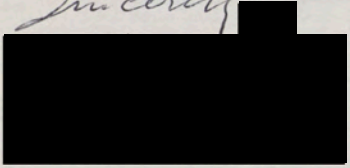

Re The 'Must Carry' Provision

I realize my protest will have no effect other than to register another vote against the present law that pre-empt's your early morning talk show with a 'Black Entertainment' program.

For years I've been watching the beginning of your program with anticipation knowing your subjects are timely and stimulating. I'm awake by 5 o'clock and prepare to work out at the local athletic club. By watching and listening to your show it gets my brain going - until the 'Black Entertainment' cuts in - then it's like hitting a brick wall. Perhaps the anger and repulsion the switch generates stimulates me to work-out harder, but I really don't like it. It's not racial, it's not what I want on TV at that hour.

Even if the cable company cut in with Julia Child I wouldn't like it. Oops!
Maybe that sounds anti-feminist, so I'll sign off and say again that the "Must Carry" provision should be changed.

Sincerely
