

3/29 Decided I may as well include this in today's mailing of the April 1 Letter to about 20 people.

March 28, 1994

Dear [REDACTED]

What do you think the effect will be if the Clintons did not lose $69,000 on Whitewater; did not lose $46,000 on Whitewater; but lost only $11,000 on Whitewater?

Just saw the first segment of Zeppirelli's "Jesus of Nazareth" on the Family Channel. A good reminder that you can take Judaism out of Christianity as easily as you can take Jeb Ruggers and Babe Ruth out of the Yankees.

Stacey had a great Spring Break cruise on a Carnival Fantasy trip to the Bahamas.

Regards,

Dear Citizen,

Even as late as fourteen months into the Clinton Administration, even as of this April Fool's Day of 1994, some of his public defenders can be heard ranting and raving about "one of the most exciting and productive beginnings of any Presidency in the Twentieth Century".

Casey Stengel would probably urge us at this point "to look it up". So let's do that:
