

Dear Brian Lamb;

23 MKT 2008

You are an ugly human, in many respects. I've looked past that, because I like to hear people speak & learn things. Booknotes was your ideal. Now, it's a few months gone & you've got nothing. How do you feel, in your vacuum? But, the very worst, that C-Span perpetrates in politics: all politics is C-Span & the worst is your idiotic, imbecilic Road to the White House series. Just as the 2000 debacle, giving us Bush, Jr.'s illegal victory (is the U.S. really a democracy?), passed, your C-Span started Road to the White House 2004. You give us no rest. All these pathetic pandersome white guys, filling up space, filling campaign coffers with corporate money to buy their way. Mr. Lamb, do you like being part of the problem, instead of part of the solution: publicly funded elections, no corporate money, no political ads from any interest group (not even my liberals). If you were a true friend to the people, you would bring back Booknotes (After Words is okay, but...) & take a long look at restructuring C-Span into a people's medium. Don't let politicians pander to anyone. Anyway, all good wishes.

BEST,
