I watched the program
'The Great American Shuck Off'. It should have been called 'The Great American Goof-Off'.

You shouldn't have put it on the air. It was quite evident that a couple of so-called intellectuals got together and decided this was a good idea.

All it proved to me is how far our country has gone down in moral values.
I couldn't wait that priest near any child of mine. That woman was a bimbo of the first order. Can you imagine going to her for help? Had help those who come in contact with her.

You must have had a hard time finding any programs.

To spend 2 or 3 hrs to argue that it's okay to lie shows what a mess this country is in.

Such stupid questions!
You can do better programs than that.

Sincerely
[Redacted]

listen to that garbage.

p.s. I turned it off before it was over, as I couldn't
