Gentlemen,

This past week I attended the Republican National Convention from start to finish - from gavel to gavel - in my living room.

I know that I saw more and heard more than I would had I been in a front row seat in the Astrodome.

There were no interruptions for commercials or interviews. No voice-over commentator told me who or what I was watching, and no analyst explained, in his opinion, what I heard.

Thank you, C-SPAN, for making this possible for me and all of your viewers. It was a wonderful experience, and I appreciate it.

Gratefully,
