Dear Brian,

I hope this letter finds you in good health and spirits. The reason I write this note is to thank-you and your staff for a wonderful experience at C-SPAN.

From the moment I walked into the building, your staff treated me with kindness and generosity. To me, that speaks volumes about how you have created a very warm and family-like atmosphere. When I departed WJLA-TV several months ago after having spent 13-years there, I never wanted to work in television again. The reason being that the business has dramatically changed and the nastiness of the people more severe as the years progress. But, C-SPAN changed all that! I feel refreshed and even see hope that working in broadcasting can be a pleasurable experience and that there are people who care about what they do and go about it in a professional manner (again, not what I was accustomed to). One last observation for which I am very grateful: being invited to the holiday party. Even though I had been there less than a month and was only temporary, the gesture spoke volumes about C-SPAN.

Once again thanks and good luck.

Sincerely,
