Dear Mr. Lamb;

I am very much interested in watching the broadcasts over C-Span and I especially enjoy your Book Notes on Sunday evening. I have recently been reading "A Woman of Egypt" written by Jehan Sadat. You probably have seen the book and you may have had it reviewed over your program. If so, I have missed it. I think Mrs. Sadat spends her winters teaching in some school in North Carolina but I can't tell you more than that how she could be reached. It seems to me that the book is exactly the kind of book which would fit nicely into your series.

Sincerely,
