RE: Booknotes

Congratulations on five years of the Booknotes programming. I understand that I can obtain a video tape of the anniversary programming for $39.95. Is that correct?

And, would I be able to order a video tape of any of the single programs you've shown on Booknotes over the past five years?

Also, would you be able to provide a list of the book titles, their authors and publishers of those titles you've reviewed over the past 5 years?

Sincerely,
