

April 26, 1994

Mr. Nixon was respected and admired by many Americans, as well as many, many others around the world.

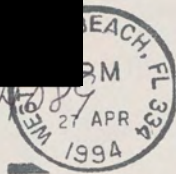

It is incomprehensible that your station would feature Jules Whitover with his rude and, indeed, vulgar comments during a time of national mourning.

You owe the Nixon family and the people of this country an apology. The person whose decision it was to have Jules Whitover on the air should be fired. C-SPAN has lost all credibility as an unbiased new station. What a supreme disappointment to those of us who had previously believed in your fairness!
