

Dear C-SPAN,

I appreciated your selection on viewers mail today.

The points made relative to pro + con debates, guests, such as professors + experts and avoiding typical guests in favor of historians, economists & political scientists are great suggestions.

Certainly during elections debates would be useful. My experience tells me that when debaters ask each other questions I learn the most.

Thanks for your continuing efforts to adequately announce upcoming schedules.

Sincerely,

“A passionate attachment of one nation for another produces a variety of evils. . . It gives to ambitious, corrupted, or deluded citizens (who devote themselves to their favorite nation) the facility to betray or sacrifice the interests of their own country without odium, sometimes even with popularity. The nation which indulges toward another an habitual hatred or an habitual fondness is in some degree a slave.”

—George Washington,
Farewell Address
