Dear News Director,

Senator Bob Kerrey (Democrat-Nebraska) has announced he is a candidate for President. I like Senator Kerrey, he reminds me alot of John Kennedy. He certainly has solid patriotic credentials. He has defeated Republican incumbents before and has never lost to a Republican. I'd like to see him take young Joe Kennedy (son of Robt Kennedy) as his running mate; young Joe Kennedy is a Member of the U.S. House of Representatives. I think the Bob Kerrey-Joe Kennedy Ticket would whip the pants off Bush & Quayle; the Bob Kerrey-Joe Kennedy Ticket would have a very powerful political family backing it up (that's for sure).

Bob Kerrey has a very good policy to deal with domestic issue's and that's something that the Bush Administration is lacking. We are the wealthiest Nation in the world and we got hungry & homeless people, we don't have a decent health care program, people are jobless and run out of unemployment compensation (how do they pay the rent or buy clothes for their children, etc??) and President Bush, et al, don't have a competent plan to deal with that situation. When it comes to domestic issue's the Bush Administration is a dismal failure.

We (our Nation) put alot of money & effort into DESERT STORM and the job's not finished. Saddam Hussein is still causing many problems. Kuwait is still not a democracy neither is Saudi Arabia a democracy....we weren't in the MiddleEast to protect democracy, we were there to protect oil production (and we failed at that, when you look at all the oil wells burning in Kuwait). Sure, I supported our Troops in DESERT STORM, but that doesn't mean I approve of the way the Bush Administration handled the situation.

Senator Bob Kerrey has some good policies and I like his stated solutions to the many issue's. Our national economy is on the rocks (regardless of what the White House says).....people are broke and getting poorer by the month. I think Bob Kerrey will win.

Yours Truly
