Mr. Brian Lamb, Chairman
CSPAN
400 No. Capitol St. N.W. , Suite 412
Washington, DC 20001

Dear Mr. Lamb:

This is just a note of appreciation for your network's carrying Moscow News-1. I was not aware of the service until I accidentally stumbled onto it about six weeks ago, and I have been watching it daily ever since.

This is an exceptional service, as indeed CSPAN is generally. I hope that, at least as long as the cash-strapped Russians manage to deliver Novosti-1 to their own people, you will continue to provide this remarkable window into the CIS to us.

One small suggestion: Give the English language translator at least a small credit line. I don't know who the guy is, but he plows through rapid-fire delivery by news anchors without missing a beat. (I've studied Russian, so I appreciate quality translation--and the woman who substituted for a couple of weeks, no disparagement intended, simply couldn't keep up.)

Again, thank you for News-1!

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
