Mr. Brian Lamb, President C-Span

Dear Sir,

I am writing about the program of Sunday,

Sept. 19th, by the Capitol Historical Society.

This was a very interesting program of the restoration of the capitol over the years, and was very worthwhile. However, there was a continuous sound all through the program, which sounded just as if there were a person sitting on a large empty box, and constantly kept banging his foot on the box. This was very distracting, and somewhat detracted from the enjoyment of such a wonderful, interesting program. I hope this will not be repeated again.

Sincerely yours,
