O.C. Kelly

Dear Sir

I want some one to explain to me why the Commander In Chief of the military doesn't have to live by the same moral and ethical code as the people in the different branches of the service.

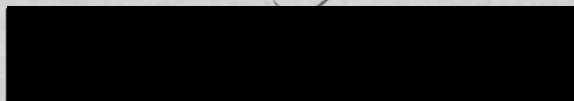

I wonder how some of the people like Kelly the B-52 pilot feels about getting kick out, and the Commander in Chief doesn't get anything. I'm sure she more capable person than Clinton. He sure can't fly a B-52 or anything else.

I would like some one to do some checking on this. How can our military service with a double standard like this.

It gives me chills to think this slim ball is the one that sends our brave men and women into harsns way.

Sincerely

Pinehurst Ill.
