Dear Mr. Lamb,

As you can see from the letterhead, I'm a member of a group which would like to see the full truth revealed about North-East Ireland.

The issue which prompts me to write to you is the disturbing cooperation between the Corporation of Public Broadcasting, BBC World News Service and Public Broadcasting Service. It has come to my attention that the C.P.B. is using tax payer dollars to disseminate "State (British) Censored News" via P.B.S. It's upsetting enough that Irish nationalist views are practically never printed in major newspapers, but to use our tax payer dollars to support British Propaganda is not only breaking my heart but breaking U.S. law. Wasn't the 1967 Public Broadcasting Act supposed to prevent "extraneous interference and control"? Could you please look into these violations and let me know what you will do to rectify this disturbing situation?

Let me hear from you sir, I'm counting on you to resolve the problems that exist.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
