

Mr Brian Lamb,

Forgive me for not structuring paragraphs, as well as my sentences omitting commas etc.

The C Span bus was passing thru Albany and parked the bus in Colonie, N.Y. — I had never heard of Alexis Tocqueville, but my sister and I looked for the bus and we were lucky to find the C span bus parked, That's where we met the nicest folks who invited my sister as well as me to board the bus. That's where I met your lovely niece Deborah Lamb, my sister was visiting me from New Jersey at that time, so when we got on the bus, I sure was shocked with all the technology on / side. I know we were both impressed.

Frankly my sister asked many questions and I listened and thought to myself, my children never had as much encouragement other the museums I took them to. — and always asked my children (I had 3 sons) never to ~~use or~~ abuse the teachers for they are the ones to learn from. I never finished high school 'cause it was depression time ~~and~~ I had to go to work, (I'm 78 years old). I did get my high school diploma at night school. When my 3 boys grew up. I'm very proud of each one, 1 is a teacher, the 2nd is a business man, and the 3d is an inspector for N.Y. State.

I'm going off in a tangent, I just was going to tell you how I thought your niece had a resemblance to you. and she was so well spoken in explaining the computers & what they do, then she told Keith to get some things for ~~us~~ <sup>the</sup> two, we got a C span T.V. Guide, a pen with a bus floating in liquid, a T shirt with C Span on it. Then when we were leaving Keith took pictures of us.

0-7029

You are advertising to teachers about "Tocquerillo" perhaps you could send my son ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> packet you have for teachers.

[REDACTED]

Los Alamos, New Mexico 87544
Mr Lamb, I sent him the T shirt I got from Keith on the bus, because I won't wear it, I'm very chunky & never wear ~~slacks~~ slacks or shorts.

Excuse me for babbling on & on - I just wanted you to know I love C. Span on the T.V. and ever so happy I sat on the bus provided by you folks. Bye for now
Sincerely
[REDACTED]

I was raised by my wonderful parents that came to America around 1916, from Ukraine. They are the ones that made me love this country and to be patriotic.