What a rocky morning!
I hope such mornings don't affect your blood pressure!
I recall once when a caller said,
"Brian, I have finally figured out what your political philosophy is" - you replied - "I wish you'd tell me" - I don't know!!"

I am so glad that you are able to maintain some privacy in your life. I have no idea whether you are married or whatever. I would hope you have some offspring in order to influence the next generation.

The more I think, read + listen to C-Span the more I don't know what I believe + more + more conclude that it isn't so important to know.

I do not understand remarks about your choice of liberals — I could listen sit of each conservatives / liberals here with little effort!

You all are doing a great job.
I am learning to listen to Gingrich without throwing up!

Very best regards.
Sincerely,
