I wanted to drop you a note and let you know how much I'd like to see Brian Lamb interview David Brock, the author of The Real Anita Hill, on your network. About a week ago Brian was asked by a caller if you were planning to schedule an interview. Brian replied he would pass the suggestion along to the appropriate person. I've never heard any mention of the subject since.

Several of David Brock's planned appearances on other television shows were canceled when his book came out. I would like to watch Brian's interview and, among other things, hear Mr. Brock's reply to the question as to what impact his book has had upon his personal and professional life. I suspect you can be easily pressured by our benevolent Congress and will understand if you'd rather not do this interview. If that is the case, please just tell me.

Finally a suggestion. There are thousands of CompuServe subscribers like myself who are avid watchers of C-SPAN. You should explore making your schedule available as a file on CompuServe. There are several "forums" where your schedule would be a popular download. Maybe you could join forces with CNBC and create a TV schedule file. Please give it some thought.

Sincerely,
